STATUS REPORT REGARDING THE DEFENDANT'S COMPETENCY EVALUATION

On July 30, 2014, the Court ordered the government to inquire as to the feasibility of completing the defendant's competency evaluation in 20 days (and no more than 30 days). As soon as the defendant's destination within the Bureau of Prisons was identified – on Friday, August 1, 2014 – counsel for the government, pursuant to the Court's Order, contacted the Psychology Department at Brooklyn Metropolitan Detention Center. During that telephone call, and in subsequent conversations, the government was assured by the Psychology Department, and by the defendant's treating physician, Dr. Samantha DiMisa, that the evaluation could be completed within 20 days of the defendant's arrival at the facility – resulting in an expected completion date of August 26, 2014.

In recent communications with the government, Dr. DiMisa explained that, due to an unforeseen lockdown at the defendant's facility – which temporarily precluded her from conducting the interview portion of the evaluation – in addition to her unanticipated need to review certain case materials to meaningfully conduct that interview process¹, the evaluation might not be completed until September 5, 2014. While that date is still within 30 days of the defendant's arrival at the facility, the parties thought it prudent to provide the Court with notice of this change.
